

OlivArt located on the main road in Bethlehem the Holy Land, is a leading manufacturer, wholesaler and exporter of a vast range of handcrafted olive wood religious items and giftware since fifty years .

OlivArt (Previously Fatima Olive Wood Works) was founded in Bethlehem by late Mrs. Naomi Facouse around 1958 as a family business, and since had strived to produce quality products through creating characterized designs and applying innovative techniques to develop quality and production methods, OlivArt had through decades trained tenths of artisans on whom nowadays depends on their vast experience to satisfy any demands from the local and export markets.

OlivArt

At OlivArt we recognize the urging need of Christians around the world for religious and ecclesiastical artifacts connecting them spiritually to the Holy Land; we combine all our resources to achieve this objective through creating attractive, decorative and meaningful memorable products symbolizing the Holy Land spirit.

Atop of fifty years of experienced management, at OlivArt we follow day-to-day systematic procedures to insure excellent workmanship of our products, selected kiln dried wood, qualified artisans, adequate raw materials, strict inspection of every finished item and a lot of patience, are one of our combined recipes to produce satisfactory quality and provide efficient service.

OlivArt is an environment friendly firm, throughout all our production process we use only the wood resulting from pruning olive trees. We never use the wood of illegally rooted out trees.

□□□□□□□□□□OlivArt and Fatima Olive Wood Works are registered trademarks.

